VOICE OF THE ONE OF THE ONE OF THE SERVED TO SERVED T

WHAT ARE YOU BELIEVING FOR?

On Sunday, January 14 of this year, Jesse shared the power-packed message that the Lord gave him for 2024—"Give God a Job"—at JDM International Headquarters in Destrehan, LA. As Jesse expounded on this Holy-Spirit-inspired theme with Covenant Church, faith was infused into the hearts of those in attendance, as well as those watching online. Since this message was preached, it has received NEARLY 30,000 views across all of our official JDM social media platforms and our JDM App... and the views keep on increasing!

Weeks before the message was shared, Jesse encouraged everyone to write down their dreams and visions for this year. During the conclusion of the service, Jesse invited Pastor Cathy along with the Covenant Church elders to lay hands on those requests which were written down and brought to the altar. A powerful prayer was said and everyone was united in faith, believing that God would get the job done.

Jesse even took time to acknowledge the online audience during this time of prayer. He proclaimed that faith destroys all distance between God and those watching from all over the world! Viewers around the globe commented their prayer requests and came into agreement that our Heavenly Father would heal, touch, restore, and deliver in every area.

Jesse, Cathy, and Team JDM are still believing that YOUR miracle will come to pass, in the mighty name of Jesus. We stand with you as you continue to expand your faith and ask God to bring forth His blessings in your life. Our God is limitless, and we know that NOTHING is too hard for Him!

WE WANT TO REJOICE WITH YOU!

Send us your testimonies of how God has fulfilled the job you entrusted to Him. We want to celebrate all of the wondrous things God has done. And, there is still time to send us your dreams and visions for 2024. Contact JDM at partnercare@jdm.org and let us agree in faith with you!

People ask me all the time why I'm so happy. Well, I'm simply exercising my benefits. I've made up my mind that I'm going to be healthy and I'm going to be happy. It's my right. I have benefits. I am a child of God, and I believe His promises.

Psalm 103:1-5 says, "Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless His holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's."

I don't care what happens or how bad it gets; I care about how good it gets. I've had tragedy in my life and many, many problems, but I've decided that if God said I could overcome, then I will overcome. Problems aren't going to beat me; I'm going to beat them by the power of God that lives in me, and by the Word that He's given me to use. God's Word is like a sword against the problems of this world.

So, I'm not going to stop and build a house in the valley. No, I'm going through the valley! I am going to use my benefits...and one of the greatest and most important benefits of knowing God is being able to lean on His holy Word. In good times and in bad times, I will BLESS the Lord.

I've read many good books throughout my life, but there is no book like the Bible. The Word is living, breathing, decreeing, and declaring Who God is and what God does. It's filled with benefits that will empower you to prosper in every facet of your life—spiritually, physically, and financially. You can find out what God does in every book. From Genesis to Revelation, He is calling those things that be not as though they were. He's a faith God. He speaks and calls things into existence with the words of His mouth. That's what He does, and He wants us to do the same.

Who God is can be described by the fruit of the Spirit found in Galatians 5:22-23: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law." These are His attributes that we are entitled to. They're the benefits of having the Spirit of God living and dwelling in us.

So, nobody can tell me that I'm going to lose my joy. My joy is founded in God, Who lives in me because of what Jesus did on the cross. No one has the power to take it away...nobody! So, I won't lose my joy, because against such there is no law. You can't take my faith either, because against such there is no law. And you sure can't steal my peace, because against such there is no law. Joy, faith, and peace are just part of Who God is in me, and I refuse to let someone else's misery steal it all away.

You've Got Something to Shout About

A lot of people think that emotion shouldn't be a part of a Christian's life, but I think otherwise. The Bible says that David danced, and that he danced with every fiber of his being in praise to God. In fact, the boy did it so strongly that the Bible says he danced his pants off (read 2 Samuel 6). He was standing around in his linen ephod (priestly garment), and his wife got mad about it.

Women don't like anybody seeing their husbands in their linen ephods! But David blessed (or empowered to prosper) the Lord with his dance. His heartfelt praise was seen by others and recorded in the Bible as a true display of one man's love for God. He was witnessing to others through that dance. He was acting out Psalm 103:1: "Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His holy name."

It's okay to get emotional about what you believe when it comes to the things of God. You get emotional when you care about something. People get emotional when they watch sports games or when they do what they enjoy. You often see players on TV who do their victory dances. Cathy and I talk about that, and we believe that it's good to show praise and joy about what you love and what you believe in. We've got God in our lives and His many benefits, and it's something to shout about!

So, if I'm believing God for something in my life, I don't act like I'm miserable even if I'm going through a battle. I choose to lean on a benefit. I choose to feel good. I choose to put God first—to reach people and change lives with His Word. I know that when I put God first and when I prosper Him, He will prosper me. Matthew 6:33 promises it: "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." Notice it said the word "things"—God knows you need and want things, but He must be first before you can experience His prosperity.

Prosperity starts in the mind. It begins with blessing the Lord and filling your mind with His Word—His many benefits—so that you can prosper spiritually, physically, and financially. "Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits" (Psalm 103:2).

Forgiveness for the "Twisted Stuff"

What are some of those benefits that we aren't supposed to forget? Forgiveness is one of them. Psalm 103:3 says, "Who forgiveth all thine iniquities...."

What is iniquity? It's all your twisted stuff—the issues that haven't yet become sin but are starting to cause you to twist or turn. It's things like, "I wish Sister So-and-So would leave this church. She's such an aggravating person. So, Lord, if You'd like to send her over somewhere else, please do so. I just don't like her, Lord." What kind of prayer is that? It's a twisted type of prayer. It's not right, yet there's no sin in it. It's just a person who's starting to twist. A few steps more and they'll be in offense, but right now, they're just starting to turn toward sin.

It's also in gossip like, "Have you heard about...?" or "Don't tell anybody, but...." Gossip always comes camouflaged as a concern. This is a small example, but it shows you that God forgives you even before you dive headlong into sin. He "forgiveth all thine iniquities," or twisted stuff.

Healing for All Thy Diseases

Here's another benefit of God. Psalm 103:3 continues and says that He is the One "... Who healeth all thy diseases." Now some people don't believe that, but either they are lying or God is lying...I pick them! God told us that He is not a man that He can lie in Numbers 23:19. It's impossible for Him to lie.

Sometimes there are things that stand in the way and hinder our prayers, but healing is a part of God's benefit package and we should never dismiss it.

Too many people just accept sickness as a part of life and say, "Well, you know, Mama had diabetes, Daddy had diabetes, and Uncle Fred's hunting dogs had diabetes. Diabetes runs in our family. You know, our family usually ends up dying of diabetes."

If you ask them, "Do you have it?" they'll say, "No, no, but you know it's coming."

If you say, "Well, God will heal you," they'll interrupt you to say, "Well, I know, but...." That "but" really gets in the way! Yet God says He's the One "Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth all thy diseases." These are His benefits, and they come when we bless the Lord with all our soul and everything that is within us, and when we bless His holy name and forget NOT His benefits. In other words, we have to remind ourselves of them so that we don't lose sight of God's power to prosper us.

"Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits" (Psalm 103:2).

Kindness, Mercy, and a Mouthful of Good

I'm always astounded by how many people I meet who tell me that they love me and are blessed by my preaching. People come up to me at church, in restaurants, and on the street just to say "hello" and let me know how much they love me. Why? It's not because of who I am. I believe it's because this scripture is at work in my life. I bless the Lord and forget not His benefits. Psalm 103:4 says He "...crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies." Isn't that wonderful?

At the very beginning of my ministry, the Lord said, "Jesse, if you'll stay humble and believe My Word and not hurt Me or steal from Me or hurt one of My flock, I'll cause people to fall in love with you." And that has happened. Now, I don't mean that arrogantly, it's simply the truth. I cross denominational barriers of every kind. I've preached in Baptist, Methodist, Episcopalian, Presbyterian, Church of God, Church of Christ, Word of Faith, Full Gospel, Assemblies of God, and even Catholic churches. I've also spoken in Jewish synagogues. When I tell them, "Don't you know I'm a Christian?" They say, "Yeah, but we like you." It's amazing to me!

I believe it is God's kindness and tender mercy on my life. Because, you see, I don't try to beat people up with my words. God never told me to beat people; He told me to lead people. Leaders in the faith aren't supposed to beat the sheep. We are to lead the sheep.

I'm not an "exposer" of people. I prefer to sow mercy. If you mess up, I don't say, "Well, you are a low-down dog from hell! No, I say, "Let's pray and ask God for grace and mercy in your life." Sowing and reaping still applies, and people may have to reap for what they've sown in this life, but God will always extend His hand of mercy toward them.

If you are out to judge and hurt people, they will scatter just to try to get away from you, and they will be no better off than before. But if you let the tender mercies and the lovingkindness of God flow through you, people will be attracted to the God in you, and then He can help them. What a benefit! The crown of lovingkindness and tender mercy is wonderful.

I love the next benefit in Psalm 103:5: "Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things..." The word "things" was added to make it flow, but the original says that your mouth will be satisfied with "good." To me, that means good ought to be coming out of your mouth. It is more satisfying to let good things roll off your tongue instead of bad things. Words of faith lift people up, including you. Words of doubt don't. Words of anger just breed more anger. Words of peace bring calmness. Life is more satisfying when good is coming out of people's mouths.

Youth Renewed Like the Eagle's

Cathy and I have been married now for 53 years, as of this writing, and not long ago she told me, "Jesse, you look better now than you did when I married you." I said, "Help her eyes, Jesus! I've got the photo album and it's just not true." When Cathy first saw me, I had a hard body...I'm talking muscles! I had abs that looked like they'd been cut with a razor, they were so tight. Well, I don't have a six-pack anymore, it's more like a keg, but that woman still thinks I'm something. Love is blind, and that's a benefit!

I've seen old people where the woman looked like she needed ironing and the man looked like a red pepperoni pizza had landed on his face. Yet, when they look at each other, they don't see that old age. They see an eighteen-year-old boy and a seventeen-year-old girl. Again, love is blind, and that's a benefit! But, you see, they didn't marry each other's body. They married each other. In her eyes, his youth was renewed. In his eyes, her youth was renewed, too. Isn't that wonderful? That's the power of love at work.

Nobody wants to age. Psalm 103:5 continues to say, "...so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's." This entire passage of scripture is telling us that if we bless the Lord by putting Him first and winning souls (which is what makes Him wealthy), and we do not let His benefits escape our memory, He will renew our youth like the eagle's.

Have you ever seen an eagle's feathers? What color are they? Take a look at my picture and guess. That's right, silvery white!

It doesn't matter if you're going bald, you've got a keg for a stomach, and your wife's rear looks like it's been damaged by hail—if you both bless the Lord and forget not His benefits, you're going to get a divine overhaul! Renewed youth...and I'm not talking about cosmetically (although I do believe that what's in your heart is going to show up on your face); I'm talking about energy and strength to live well.

I preach more than anyone I know. I'm constantly "going ye" with this Gospel of Jesus Christ, and do you know Who gives me the energy and the strength to do it? God. I consider energy a benefit of blessing the Lord with all my soul and keeping His benefits alive in my mind. That same energy is available to you, too. It's time for Christians to realize that they don't have to accept the problems and ways of the world. You and I have benefits, and we can put the Word of God on situations and see them change. Greater is He Who is in us than he who is in the world. If God is for us, who can be against us? We are more than conquerors, and no weapon formed against us is going to prosper. We have the benefit of God's Word and His presence in our lives when we simply BELIEVE.

This article is an excerpt from Jesse's new book BELIEVE.

JESUS Came to Give You Benefits— Will You Believe?

Friend, Jesus loves you and He's calling you to believe Him today. He laid down His life and rose again so that you could spend eternity with Him in Heaven and experience His absolute best here on earth. Is Jesus a part of your life? Is He your friend? Can you talk to Him? If you've answered "no" to any of these questions, I'm here to tell you that He is alive and ready to come into your life.

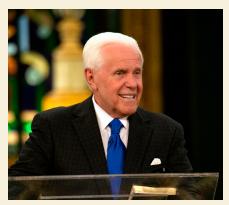

Maybe you already know the Lord but you're struggling with your Christianity. Temptations could be getting the best of you, leaving you to feel lost and hopeless in the middle of life's raging storms. Jesus is your Answer, and He wants to meet you right where you are. He wants to heal you, deliver you, and give you all the benefits He went to the cross for you to have. All He's asking you to do is to step out on faith.

Whether you have never asked Him to come into your life or you are simply not living how you should be, would you pray this prayer with me? I would be honored to introduce you to the greatest Friend you'll ever have. As you say these words, if you'll believe them with your heart, you will be saved (Romans 10:9-10):

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You died and rose from the dead for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. In Your name I pray. Amen.

If you just prayed this prayer, congratulations! You are a "new creature" in Christ, and as 2 Corinthians 5:17 says, "...old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." All of Heaven is celebrating! Your slate is now clean before the Lord, and He's empowered and equipped you to live a life of joy and victory.

It is important that you let someone know of your decision to follow Christ, and I would love to hear from you! I want to rejoice with you about your decision to accept His sacrifice on the cross. I'd also like to send you a free copy of our Understanding Salvation booklet to help you begin your new life of faith. You can contact me online at JDM.org or use the envelope/order form included in the center of this magazine. Remember, you have the benefit of God's Word and His presence in your life. Read the Bible every day and simply believe everything the Lord says. I love you, and I'm praying for you!

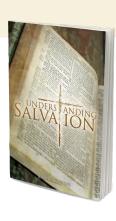

~ Jesse

Have you limited the Lord's work in your life by tying His hands with unbelief?

Get ready for a scriptural wake-up call in this highly charged message by Jesse that will compel you to access your faith in God and stretch your view of what He can do in your life. You'll be challenged to ask yourself what God asked Abraham and Sarah when He promised them a son: "Is any thing too hard for the LORD?" (Genesis 18:14). In this teaching, your faith will soar as Jesse helps you realize God's unlimited ability to do the impossible for you.

Throughout the Bible, the Lord gives great and precious promises to all His children. But in order to receive His infallible Word for your life, you must work with Him. Believing in God's limitless power and having faith that He will do what He says is your part of the job. Learn how to work with God and see His mighty hand move as you understand how:

- You have to use God's language to get in touch with Him—if you want something, you have to say something
- The spirit of faith doesn't have the word "guess" in it—faith expands your way of thinking, believing, and living
- You must not allow other people's small thinking to affect your big thinking
- Consistency of belief refuses to be double-minded, which is instability
- · The dew of faith refreshes your mind and brings focus to your life

Just as God did for Abraham and Sarah, the Lord wants to bring your miracle to pass. It's time to let go of what you may think is "too hard" or "too much" for Him. Focus on the reality that there isn't anything that He cannot do. Choose to believe that God will do what He's promised you. Learn how to take the limits off of your Heavenly Father and unleash the floodgates of His power in your life. Remember, you serve the great God Almighty, so think big and give God a job—NOTHING is too hard for Him!

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

World Evangelism has been the driving vision of Jesse Duplantis Ministries from its inception in 1976. We've been going non-stop, rescuing souls from the pit of hell and introducing the lost to Christ in meetings across the globe. For 48 years now, our commitment has never wavered and we've passionately obeyed the Lord's command in Mark 16:15 to "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature." We are determined to make sure every person hears the Good News!

I pray that these amazing testimonies fill your heart with a glorious, inexpressible JOY! Each one was written by a precious soul, and we rejoice with all of Heaven for using JDM to reach people and change lives with the wonderful Gospel of Jesus Christ. First Peter 1:8 (NLT) says it best: "You love Him even though you have never seen Him. Though you do not see Him now, you trust Him; and you rejoice with a glorious, inexpressible joy."

When you were in Clovis, NM about 10 years ago, I requested prayer from you in between services on a Sunday morning. My husband had died and left me $1.2 million in debt, and I work for wages. You were gracious enough to take the time to pray for me, and you prayed the most powerful prayer I have ever received. I sowed into your ministry every time you came to town. The other significant part of this story is that I also went to my pastors at the time for spiritual help. They said they had never seen anything like it, and that I was just a modern-day Job. They didn't know how to help me. Thank God, that was not what you said! At the end of your prayer, you told me to let you know that God had delivered me. Praise Jesus, He has! I want to tell you that 10 years later, the debt is paid in full and I am debt free, with the exception of a vehicle. Both my homes are paid for in full, and my husband's name in our community is restored—all by the power of God. God is so good! My children will not inherit debt. Through this time, it has been God and me. My family and friends thought I was crazy to not file for bankruptcy, but I kept hearing the words you prayed. About 6 years ago on a Friday night, you prayed for me again. You took about 20 minutes with me in a prayer line, spoke into my life, and prayed for me to have strength to finish this assignment. God answered that prayer. You preached on giving God your best, and so for 10 years I have had between 3-4 jobs. Through you, God spoke and said for me to do all I could do, and that what I could not do He would do for me. I did, and He did! You said to give God my best, and I did, and God gave me His! Widowhood is a difficult walk, and you have no idea how much easier you made this walk. I listen to you all the time on YouTube. You do not know how lifechanging your messages are, and I thank you. I know that the two times you prayed and laid hands on me were divine appointments, and each time ushered in another level of breakthrough. Thank you, and may God continue to bless you above and beyond what you can think or imagine.

Glory to God, rejoice with us for our miracle! We sowed our tithes and offering and received a cheque in the mail for $4,189.00 Australian dollars. To God be the glory forevermore!

I got an abnormal test result from my mammogram. I needed further tests. I called your ministry and someone prayed with me. I am happy to report that my tests all came back clear. Praise be to God! Thank you so much for praying with me. Your monthly teaching letters and magazine are such a blessing to me. Thank you so much. God bless you both!

God bless this strong and brave woman and her husband. The ministry is a great blessing to my daily life since I learned and am learning what God teaches us through the Word. What He really teaches us is faith, the true faith. Thank God for these ministers who guide us to believe in the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

*This praise report has been translated into English for you to rejoice with us.

My husband and I have been Partners since 2019, right before the pandemic started. We live in upstate New York. In July of 2019, I had to fly to Texas to help my mother—she's 74 years young. She slipped on water, fell, and broke her left arm—an awful time for her, especially because she's left-handed. The evening I got there, we were watching TV and Brother Jesse and Sister Cathy were reading testimonies, and one caught my attention. Someone had written to you saying they were praising God because their student loans had been paid off in full. At that moment, I said out loud, "Lord, You paid their student loans off, and I know You can do it for me as well." God put it in my heart so strongly to become a Partner that night. I really liked when you said for every dollar sown is a soul won—something to that effect. I thought to myself, I want to be part of that!, so we became Partners. I specifically sowed a seed and named it by faith, "My payoff student loan seed." I prayed and I asked God to help me pay off my $90,000.00 student loan debt. I believed for it and I thanked Him. I never asked God again to pay it off, I just thanked Him every time I remembered it. This past week, I was trying to pay on my husband's student loan, and afterwards (here's the good part!) I asked the lady if she would check on the loans I owed on. We were supposed to start paying them back starting this past October and I hadn't received any statements. So, the lady put me on hold, came back to the phone and said, "Your account says it's CLOSED AND PAID IN FULL!" I stayed quiet for a second, and asked her to say that again. She repeated, "Your account is CLOSED, PAID IN FULL!" I was shocked and in awe! The $90,000.00 debt I had looming over me is no longer looming; it's paid in full! Honor and Glory to God! I said to her, "That's a miracle!" and I began dancing and laughing, crying and praising God, and dancing some more! God never ever ceases to amaze me! Thank you, Brother Jesse and Sister Cathy, for teaching me how to pray, ask, believe, and receive when I pray, and not beg God. Thank you for always praying for all your Partners. May God continue to bless JDM mightily. Go get 'em, Brother Jesse! I love that God has blessed JDM with that beautiful Falcon 7X. More blessings to you, your family, and Covenant Church!

Early last year, I watched your message, "The Four Types of Giving," on the JDM app. It was my first time hearing about what the firstfruits really means. In the fall, I was asked to take on more responsibilities at work, which included a raise. I was also promised a $1,000 bonus once I was doing the job in full. Then, the Holy Spirit reminded me about the firstfruits. I was very excited to put into action what you taught through the Word. So, I gave my firstfruits to your ministry. Early in December, I received the $1,000 bonus. I am happy to share with you that God did it again! He blessed me with a new job making more money!

At the beginning of this month, I was promoted at work as a manager. I am on a 100% commission-based pay structure. The rate was something I was unsure of, but I agreed to it with the company, thinking I would try it for a month or two and then revisit it if the workload was more than expected. A week went by and I knew my time was worth more than what they were giving me, based on the workload and how much money I was making for the company. I messaged my boss with my thoughts, and right away he suggested alternative solutions to raising my pay. Then he started messaging me about how he felt like I was just trying to get everything out of him that I could. He was somewhat upset and it was just 1 week after being promoted, so in the natural it probably did not seem appropriate, but I felt a boldness and a peace in my spirit about it. Right before these messages were being exchanged, my wife had put on Brother Jesse preaching live from Jonathan Shuttlesworth's church in Texas. When I walked into the room, I instantly felt like I needed to sow a significant seed. When Jesse gave an opportunity to sow a seed, I sowed in obedience, believing in faith for breakthrough with my boss and for increase. Jesse said, "I have an anointing for increase on my life," and I received that by faith. The next morning, my boss did a 180-turn and messaged me back telling me to name my price. It resulted in approximately a $7,500 raise per month! Later that day, he even called me and said, "You're worth it." I give God all the glory and thank Him for His favor and for using Brother Jesse as a point of contact to stir my faith. Keep winning souls and preaching the glorious Gospel!

I had the joy of hearing Brother Duplantis and his beautiful wife, Cathy, at a small church in Indiana. If I had to guess, maybe around 200 in attendance. Wisdom speaks if you give it time to testify. There is no way they would profit in money/mammon in coming here. In fact, they gave a great gift to someone while there. They wrote a check out on the spot. The cost of them coming versus the end result—they couldn't even recover the cost of it! But that wasn't why they came. There's a cost far above that of money. The loss of one soul far outweighs that of money. I saw it in their very eyes. A compelling testimony in and of itself! Thank you, Brother Jesse and Cathy, for taking the time to speak to the least of us, and wisdom speaks here. Our pastors often speak of rich Abraham and the rich man in hell, but never reconcile how Lazarus the beggar entered into the gates of Heaven. Until one recognizes this, one will never understand why they do what they do, and why they do it! Every church has a weak link, and the purpose is not to lord over, and always correct, but to raise up and nurture. Last night I got to witness this yet again. Not for financial gain, but for THE JOY of the Lord! I've traveled more than once to watch you speak. I will do it again, sir. Not to gain money, but just to share in THE JOY! The precepts, principles, and doctrines are all there, but few exercise spreading THE JOY! A job well done, my friend, if I may call you that. It is better to give than to receive, and last night was just another example of THE JOY in doing so.

GIVE GOD A JOB

Testimories

Enjoy these awesome praise reports from some of our YouTube viewers who have experienced answered prayers and abundant blessings from our limitless God.

"I am watching from South Africa. I listen daily, and I have been a Partner since 2017. I believe that 'faith' and 'hurry' are not compatible! I love to give God a job! Your determination motivates us. Thanks for praying for a 100-fold return for every seed—I believe without wavering!"

"We received a financial breakthrough for our new house! It's fully furnished, and we have enough money flowing over to be a blessing to others!"

"I was homeless, did drugs, and went into prison. That's where I got to know God. He changed my life. Now I have a home, a wife, a lovely daughter, and a stream of income that gets me $32,000 weekly. Plus, I have a new identity—I'm a child of God. Hallelujah!"

"I started giving because I just had to do something. I was listening to Jesse and Cathy, and it was so edifying and faith-strengthening. Now my youngest son accepted the Lord, and my oldest son, who was unemployed, got a job after 3 years of unemployment! And now I'm a Partner! I danced in the joy of the Lord in my living room. My household is blessed beyond measure!"

"During one of your sermons, you said to tell God what you want. I laughed and said, 'Ok then. I want a home of my own.' Now, a year later, we are living in our new home! My husband and I were good tithers, and also worked very hard. I never thought I would have a nice home like this! Praise God!"

"Jesus healed me of my back, head, and stomach pain. I wrote in and prayed with you, and the next day...zero pain!"

"Your message has changed my life. My thinking, understanding, and revelation knowledge have been opened, and growth has come ever since. My whole family has grown, and we have been able to become partners of the ministry. Miracle after miracle!"

Thank you so very much for having the Visionary Conferences. They are such an overflowing and constant flow of wealth in every area. They build each year, so even though it's been said before, this conference was the best one yet! The music was beyond all! Every session was just a surfeit of anointed teaching. We love that no matter where someone is in their walk, Jesus fills you up and speeds you up. The sense of urgency to get out and DO was almost beyond bearing! We are almost out of time. One thing that we are very aware of with these conferences is the remarkable, godly constancy. The constancy of God is ALWAYS present. Every person involved is clothed in the peace and constancy. It's like no other, and we have never experienced it anywhere else. You leave filled with the love and purpose of God, and with revelation that just keeps expanding. Thank you. We know God blesses you—we ask that He pours it out a little more!

Did you know that God can give you divine direction for your life that is far above anything that you would ever ask or even think on your own? It's the truth! I believe God is moving His children to dream bigger—spiritually, physically, and financially.

We should not be discouraged when small-minded people tell us our dreams are too big. No dream is too big for God to fulfill! In fact, I believe that God is the One Who puts the BIG things in our hearts. We know from Amos 3:7 that, "Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets." So, whether that dream is to see your family saved, your body healed, or your finances prospering, we can receive divine direction to make it happen!

Three Key Things

After studying the Word of God, I have noticed that whenever God wants to do something in the earth, He always does three key things. First, God always has a very specific, detailed plan. Second,

He will always impart His direction to someone on the earth. And third, God will always provide the resources to fulfill His plan.

That is exactly what happened before the flood came. God had a detailed plan to save His creation from the effects of sin, and He imparted His directions to someone on the earth. Noah was that man.

Genesis 6:12-22 says, "And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt... And God said unto Noah... Make thee an ark... And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of...length... breadth... height... A window... the door... lower, second, and third stories... and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee. And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort... male and female... And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee; and it shall be for food for thee, and for them. Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him...."

Read this entire passage for yourself and notice the specific directions that God gave about every detail—from the position of the window and door to the animals and the food that would be eaten while on the ark. It is amazing to see that in order for God's plan to succeed, every detail had to be followed exactly. Every step of the way, God provided the resources to fulfill the vision that He gave to Noah.

The same principle proved true for Abraham, Moses, and Mary. In each situation, God had a very specific, detailed plan, He searched the earth for someone to relate His direction to, and He provided the resources. As a result, Abraham received the covenant of faith, Moses delivered God's people, and Mary gave birth to Jesus Christ.

By the Spirit

In 1 Chronicles chapter twenty-eight, King David instructed his son Solomon about God's detailed plan for the temple:

Take heed now, for the Lord has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it!

Then David gave Solomon his son the plan of the vestibule of the temple, its houses, its treasuries, its upper chambers, its inner rooms, and of the place for the [ark and its] mercy seat;

And the plan of all that he had in mind [by the Spirit] for the courts of the house of the Lord, all the surrounding chambers, the treasuries of the house of God, and the treasuries for the dedicated gifts;

The plan for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the work of the service in the house of the Lord; for all the vessels for service in the house of the Lord...

All this the Lord made me understand by the writing by His hand upon me, all the work to be done according to the plan. 1 Chronicles 28:10-13,19 (AMPC)

David received divine direction by the Spirit. It was clear that God had written upon his heart every detail for the construction of the sanctuary. You see, David was accustomed to abiding in the secret place of the Most High, and as a result, God was able to fully relate His plan to him. David understood all that God had in mind because he was a man after God's own heart.

No matter what direction God has written on your heart, you would do well to follow the instructions that David gave to his son Solomon: "... Be strong and courageous, and do it. Fear not, be not dismayed, for the Lord God, my God, is with you. He will not fail or forsake you until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord" (1 Chronicles 28:20 AMPC).

Have you ever had your mom or dad talk to you that way? When they gave you an assignment to clean your room or cut the grass, they did not want excuses. They expected you to be strong and do it! I am sure that your parents didn't expect you to go out and buy a mop or a lawn mower for the project—everything necessary to get the job done had already been provided by them. They knew that you were well able to complete your assignment and probably had plans to reward your obedience.

Well, our God has already provided you with everything you need to finish the vision that He has placed on your heart. You don't have to walk around in the dark not knowing which way to go in life. God is ready to reveal His thoughts, feelings, and purposes of His heart to you by His Spirit.

In 1 Corinthians chapter two, it says:

Yet to us God has unveiled and revealed them by and through His Spirit, for the [Holy] Spirit searches diligently, exploring and examining everything, even sounding the profound and bottomless things of God [the divine counsels and things hidden and beyond man's scrutiny]...

Now we have not received the spirit [that belongs to] the world, but the [Holy] Spirit Who is from God, [given to us] that we might realize and comprehend and appreciate the gifts [of divine favor and blessing so freely and lavishly] bestowed on us by God...

For who has known or understood the mind (the counsels and purposes) of the Lord so as to guide and instruct Him and give Him knowledge? But we have the mind of Christ (the Messiah) and do hold the thoughts (feelings and purposes) of His heart. 1 Corinthians 2:10,12,16 (AMPC)

Although God's thoughts are higher than our thoughts and His ways are higher than our ways (Isaiah 55:8-9), the Holy Spirit has been given to us so that we can hold the thoughts, feelings, and purposes of God. When we read the Bible, the Holy Spirit transfers God's "high thoughts" directly into our hearts. It may be hidden from the world, but God has revealed them to us by His Spirit.

God's Methods Have Not Changed

Each time I walk through JDM's beautiful, debt-free International Headquarters, I am in awe of the supernatural way that God communicated His direction to us. Jesse and I diligently sought God's heart each step of the way so that we could clearly understand His detailed plan. We could see it in the Spirit long before the first piling was driven into the ground and before the first concrete slab was poured. God had written His plans on our heart by the Spirit, and we were determined to see that plan come to pass.

Although this project was completed in 2000,

Jesse and I are still giving praise to God for divine direction every step of the way! We know, from the Word of God and from our personal experience, that whatever God starts, He finishes. He is the Author and Finisher of our faith (Hebrews 12:2). Not only was it built with excellence, but we came in under budget! God fulfilled His good promise.

God's methods have not changed. Before God will do anything in the earth, He will always look for a person that He can impart divine direction to. Long before the world hears about it on the news, the Church should know what is going on in the earth. We have an assignment to pray for the spirit of wisdom and revelation so we can effectively pray for our generation.

That is exactly what happened before Sodom and Gomorrah was destroyed by sin. God revealed the plan to Abraham, and immediately Abraham began to intercede for the inhabitants of those cities.

The sad part is that old Abe stopped praying when God promised His protection for the sake of only ten righteous people. I believe that God was prepared to stop the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah if Abraham would have continued to plead for God's protection for the sake of only one righteous individual. That is God's way: to leave the ninety-nine to rescue one lost sheep.

Over two thousand years ago, Jesus declared, "It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63). His Words are just as alive today and are filled with power to meet any need that you could ever have in this life. The Bible is loaded with promises that reveal God's plan for your spiritual growth, healing, protection, prosperity, and salvation for your family. You can put the Word of God to work in your life and refuse to back off until you have what belongs to you. No matter what you are facing, regardless of the impossibility of it, you can rely on God's Word to lead you to victory.

God's plan for your spiritual growth is revealed in Romans 12:1-2 (TPT), "Beloved friends, what should be our proper response to God's marvelous mercies? To surrender yourselves to God to be His sacred, living sacrifices. And live in holiness, experiencing all that delights His heart. For this becomes your genuine expression of worship. Stop imitating the ideals and opinions of the culture around you, but be inwardly transformed by the Holy Spirit through a total reformation of how you think. This will empower you to discern God's will as you live a beautiful life, satisfying and perfect in His eyes."

If you need healing, you can rely on the promise in Isaiah 53:4-5 that declares, "Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed."

You can know that God has a plan to stop every weapon the enemy may try to hurl your way. Although many people are against prosperity these days, you can rely upon the words of Jesus in Luke 6:38 that command us to, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom." According to 3 John 2, it is God's will that you prosper and be in health!

You can know that it is God's will and plan for your family to be saved. Although we don't fight with physical weapons, we do have spiritual weapons that are "mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds" (2 Corinthians 10:4). You can use the name of Jesus and rebuke the enemy from blinding their eyes to the light of the Gospel and command laborers of the harvest to go forth and minister salvation to them. We know that it is God's will for all men to be saved, so you can pray for God's will to be done in the earth as it is in Heaven (2 Corinthians 4:4, Matthew 9:38, 1 Timothy 2:4, Matthew 6:10).

You have God's promise that if you "Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it" (Proverbs 22:6). So, be determined in your assignment to win your lost loved ones to the Lord Jesus! Hold on to Philippians 1:27 (AMPC) and declare that your entire family will be "standing firm in united spirit and purpose, striving side by side and contending with a single mind for the faith of the glad tidings (the Gospel)." The devil has to let go of your loved ones. He has no choice. He is defeated! Glory to God!

God has a promise in His Word that will meet every need you could ever have in this life. He is a good God Who has a good plan for your future. Through the prophet Jeremiah, the Spirit of God declares:

For I know the plans that I have for you, declares the LORD, plans for welfare and not for calamity to give you a future and a hope.

Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.

I will be found by you, declares the LORD, and I will restore your fortunes....

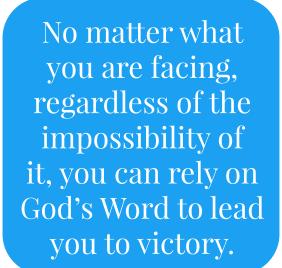

Jeremiah 29:11-14 (NASB1995)

I believe that God wants to give you divine direction for the dream that He has placed on your heart. God revealed the way that He will communicate with you in Hebrews 10:16: "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put My laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them."

Realize that God's hand is writing on your heart today. This is not the time to give up and accept less than His best for your life. It is time for you to dream bigger and stir up your faith for divine direction for your life. God has designed you for glorious living!
