You're Invited to Our

VISIONARY CONFERENCE

It is with absolute joy that we invite you to attend our 2026 Visionary Conference this year as we celebrate 50 Years in Ministry! The dates are July 9-10 (Thursday at 7pm and Friday at 10am & 7pm) and will be held at JDM Int'l Headquarters in Destrehan, Louisiana. As always, it is free to attend and open to all—this is one you don't want to miss! Do us a favor and go to JDM.org to register today.

We believe that 2026 is destined to be a great year, and we're more passionate than ever to use our faith voice as we preach this glorious Gospel to the world. 50 years of reaching people and changing lives, one soul at a time. 50 years of believing the unbelievable and receiving the impossible because it's all doable. And 50 years later, we've just barely scratched the surface! God has more for each and every one of us to do and accomplish, and our hearts' cry should all be a resounding, "Here am I, send me!" If that's you, then come and be a part of what God is doing, cast off limitations, and get ready to launch out into the deep. We hope to see you here in July!

Love You,
Jesse and Cathy

Enjoy this testimony from a JDM Partner who attended last year's conference:

"What a phenomenal Visionary Conference! Brother Jesse spoke about maintaining your vision. I am returning home with a wealth of notes. I'm electrified, motivated, and inspired! Through Christ, we can overcome any obstacle and achieve greatness!"

ADVANCE!

Aim to Advance in ALL Areas

JESSE DUPLANTIS

God didn't design us for "one-sided" advancement—we were created to advance in all areas. Health matters. Finances matter. Relationships matter. Personal goals, dreams, and visions matter. God's plan for the world matters, too.

The great limitation that most people have in life is thinking that they have to pick one area to focus on—as if they don't have energy, faith, or power to advance in more than one area at a time. Wrong.

Sure, you may have one area that needs more attention because it's been on the backburner, but you can advance much more fully than you might be giving yourself credit for because God lives in you—that makes you more than powerful. Don't let anybody lie to you! You can do all things through Christ who gives you strength and you have enough faith to move mountains! (Philippians 4:13; Mark 11:23)

Don't let anybody lie to you! You can do all things through Christ who gives you strength and you have enough faith to move mountains!

(Philippians 4:13; Mark 11:23)

Now, I know that some believers focus only on advancing spiritually, but God wouldn't have given us a body, and a desire for relationships, and put us in an economic world if we didn't need full-circle advancement in our lives.

When You Only Focus on the Physical

Have you ever seen a top athlete? An Olympian? A man or woman in tip-top physical shape? Most people who advance to that level in their body have had to overcome a lot in their mind. I know. I've met quite a few. Some, who are believers, have realized their need for God and built up their spirit, too.

But what happens to a person who is only advancing physically? Well, they may create a physical body that is working at peak level. They become specimens of great health and fitness that everybody admires. But inside? Their spirit is atrophied and looks frail—it's crying out for advancement. If they don't tend to themselves, their heart will gnaw at them to meet that need, but because they have no knowledge of what the need really is, they'll sabotage themselves.

How many people climb to the top athletic echelons and then destroy themselves in other ways and ruin their career? Many have done just that. Why? Because physical exertion, no matter how many endorphins are kicked up and flying, can't burn away the mind's need for peace and the spirit's need for God. In other words, physical advancement alone can't satisfy—and that means whether you obtain perfect outward beauty or perfect internal health, physical advancement shouldn't be the only area of advancement in your life.

My joke is that it doesn't matter how healthy you are—if you don't have any money, you aren't going anywhere! And I don't care how good you look—if you don't treat people in your life right, you won't have anybody to go anywhere with! You can't only focus on the physical. God made you, and you are more than just a body.

When You Only Focus on Finances

Now, some people focus only on making money, and they may accomplish great things and generate millions or even billions in the world. They may revolutionize an entire industry. They may build a business worth a fortune. Some may even change the way the world works, in one way or another. As a result, they may accumulate a lot of finances in life.

Financial advancement might look like the pinnacle of ALL advancement, but it's not. If it's your only focus, you are not advancing in the way God designed you to advance. How many rich miserable people are there out there? You'd be surprised! Many. If money alone solved the problem of peace, security, and joy, all rich people would be happy all the time. They'd be fulfilled by their power to purchase. They aren't. Because you cannot ignore the spirit or the body at the expense of making money and be happy for long.

Now, let me say this: I've been rich and I've been poor—and rich is better! It can't make you happy, but it sure can make you more comfortable in your misery! The truth is that no matter how enjoyable it may be to reach financial goals, it's impossible for riches or wealth to meet human spiritual needs. Physical "things" can't solve spiritual problems.

The real and point-blank-blunt eventuality about this life is this: Nobody's getting out of here alive! You know it. I know it. It's the way it is. So, finances definitely matter, but they aren't the only thing that matters because of this verse: "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mark 8:36). Spiritual advancement trumps it all in the end. We will all be held accountable to God one day.

Now, out of all of the ways we can advance, financial advancement seems to drive some people to really lose sight of their need for advancement in other areas. They may work themselves at the expense of their body and their spirit, and even to the detriment of their closest relationships.

So, the joke flips around this way: It doesn't matter how much money you have—if you are as sick as a dog, you aren't going anywhere! And no matter how rich you get—if you don't treat your spouse and kids right, you're going to be one miserable person in the end. They'll make sure of it!

When You Only Focus on Relationships

Relationships! They are the most valuable things in life. But, if you choose to only focus on your earthly relationships, you will lose out in one way or another. Think about it: How many wonderful mothers and fathers didn't take care of their bodies and went to an early grave? How many lived in constant pressure and stress of having enough finances? And how many couples today, right this moment, are trying to make peace with each other—when what they really need to do is make peace with God and themselves?

Let me tell you something (and this is no joke!), without health, you won't enjoy your relationships for long no matter how good they are. Without finances, the stress of lack will steal your energy and drain the joy out of your relationships. There is a reason why problems surrounding finances are so often mentioned when people divorce. And lastly, without spiritual advancement, you cannot really know how to love yourself or others God's way, which is the best way. It's hard to experience good relationships with others when you aren't even at peace with yourself!

As my daughter says, "How can you 'Do unto others as you would have them do unto you' if you don't know how to 'do unto YOU'?" In other words, how are you going to know how to treat others if you don't know how to treat yourself? And how will you know how to treat yourself with love if you don't know the One Who is defined as "Love"?—God!

The greatest relationship you will ever have is the one between you and God. It's the pinnacle because it's the foundation—and our faith in God for everything we want or need is born out of our faith in His love for us.

You cannot really build the kind of relationships you want with others unless you (1) allow God into your life so you can connect with His powerful love, (2) see yourself through that love so you can find peace with yourself, and (3) let His love start flowing out of your heart into the lives of others so that you can have peace with others.

God sent His only begotten Son to die for you—because He valued you that much. He gave His best because He thought you were worth it. Do you think you are worth it? Let me tell you something. When you find God's love, you find your value. When you find your value, you will suddenly find a lot more value for others. And when you value others, you won't be so tempted to treat them like used up and worthless trash.

You don't hurt or cut down what you cherish. You don't disrespect, use, or abuse what you value and love. If you want to read what the God kind of love really looks like, go to 1 Corinthians 13 and get yourself a revelation—and let that revelation turn into inspiration. It's the only way you'll get to the point of manifestation. And if you want to manifest anything, I promise you want to manifest the love of God because that's the nature of God, and the ripple effects of His kind of love are life-changing.

Spiritual advancement is the foundation of ALL advancement for a reason—but nothing happens if you don't take action. The love of God is always extended to you, but it's up to you to accept it and start learning about it so that you can really know it and flow in it on a regular basis.

The Goal of Christianity Is to Advance

The Gospel is God's message of salvation through Jesus Christ's birth, death, and resurrection—and it's a message for all of mankind. Redemption is available to everyone. As believers, it's our blessing to share what we've been given.

My life is about fulfilling the Great Commission to "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature" (Mark 16:15). It's a mission I don't take lightly, but like every other minister with that calling, we cannot do it alone—we need everyone doing his or her part to reach people and change lives, one soul at a time.

There are people I will never be able to reach, but you may be able to reach them. We all have a destiny, and part of our destiny is affecting others for good—and there is no better "good" than helping others to be free spiritually because that freedom unlocks the opportunity to be free in every other area. God cares about the whole person, not just one area of their lives, and we are His hands and feet on the earth. This means that your personal advancement is intricately woven into the advancement of Christianity as a whole.

You see, we aren't meant to live only for ourselves—that is what people without God do, and it's a very one-sided and selfish adventure. To advance God's way is to advance in our own personal lives as well as in the lives of others. That's His plan. So that should be our plan, too. It's God's will that we are generous with what we've been given and affect others for good by sharing His message in His way.

Every word you say to help others find God and find freedom in any area of their life is a seed that God sees. Every action you take in the life of another is important to Him. You may see the results here or you may only see the results once you get to Heaven; it really doesn't matter. One day in Heaven, you will know the fullness of all your seeds into the lives of others. Until then, just know that God keeps the books. He knows it all and sees—and one day, you will too. Just do your part knowing that you are a part of something big!

Real Christianity is open, pure, and joyful. It's called "Good News" for a reason! It's motivated by an honest desire for what is good in life—good for us, good for others, and good for the whole world. "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life”
(John 3:16).

“Everlasting life” doesn't start when we die; it begins the moment we receive Christ and reconnect with God as our Father, the Creator and Source of it all—that's when our spiritual advancement begins, and from that moment on, we are meant to start advancing in this life. Heaven awaits us as believers, but this life counts, too. Spiritually, physically, financially, or in our relationships with other people, God sent His Son to give us life—and not just any old, boring life.

Jesus said it best when He revealed His own purpose for coming to the world: “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly” (John 10:10). Advancing in life is God's will, and it's available to any believer who has the audacity to believe. 🌐

The above article is an excerpt from Jesse's book, Advance In Life.

Prayer of Salvation

“For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved.”

John 3:16-17

God loves the world. He sent His Son, Jesus, to make a way for all of us to be free—from guilt, from shame, and from every sin and misstep no matter how big or small. Salvation removes the heavy chains of sin and a life lived apart from our Maker. Christ’s death and resurrection on the cross was sacrificial—He did it for you and me, and for the whole world so that we could have that blank slate and simply start again.

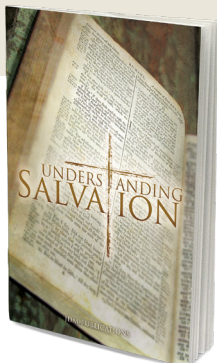

Accepting God’s plan of salvation through Jesus Christ is the first step to living at the top because, as Mark 8:36 says, “For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?” Nothing is as important as being right with God in your heart, and by accepting Christ, you are doing just that.

If you don’t know Jesus today, if you’ve never prayed a prayer of salvation, or if you just need to come back home to God where you belong, would you take a moment and pray with me today? This prayer below is a guide. Feel free to talk from your heart. Wherever you are right now, no matter what your situation, God will meet you where you are—He will hear your prayer, loose the chains of bondage off your soul, and set you free with the blood of His precious Son, Jesus. Pray with me now:

“God, thank You for loving me enough to send Your Son. I know that I need You. I believe that You are my God, my Maker, and my Father—and I believe that You sent Your only begotten Son to die for me. I believe that He died and rose again for me, too, so that I could be washed clean of all my sins. Jesus, come into my life right now. Wash me clean and create a new heart in me now. Thank You for paying the price for me. From this point on, I will seek to serve You and love You, and I ask You to help me to find my destiny in You—to be whole in every area of my life. May Your blessings follow me all the days of my life as I learn from You. Thank You, Jesus, for saving me! My new life starts right now, Lord. This is my God-day, and I’m never turning back!”

If you prayed this prayer, it’s important that you tell someone—and I’d love to hear from you, too! I would also like to send you a free copy of our Understanding Salvation booklet to help you begin your new journey with Jesus Christ. You can contact me online at JDM.org and click on the “Do You Know Jesus?” link, or you can use the top portion of the envelope/order form in the center of this magazine.

In Understanding Salvation, you will discover why God sent His Son, why salvation is necessary, and what you can do to begin living a new and better life in Christ Jesus.

Books by Jesse

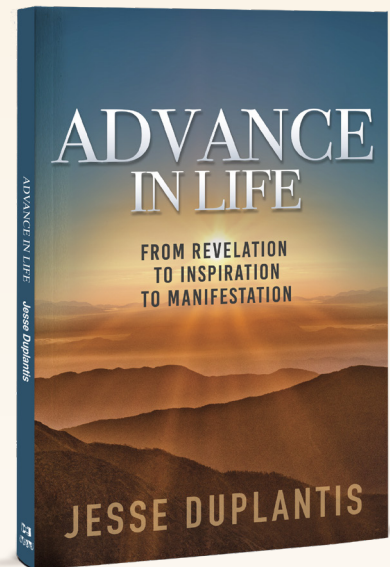

ADVANCE IN LIFE

In this book, Dr. Jesse Duplantis shares how you can advance in life by manifesting your personal dreams and desires, and move Christianity forward in the process. You'll learn how to create a mindset that works with God, instead of against God. And you'll be inspired to let go of limitations so that you can reach forward, press toward the mark, and see God's best manifested in your life.

GIVE GOD A JOB

In Genesis 18:14, God asks, "Is any thing too hard for the LORD?" The answer to His question is "NO!" In Jesse's newest book, Give God a Job, you will discover that our magnificent God is ready and able to fulfill every promise that He has for you. It's time to ask in faith and start living on Earth as it is in Heaven. Remember, if you keep God busy, He will keep you busy!

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

Jesse and I are so thankful to God for all the precious people that have been impacted for the Gospel through our ministry that began 50 years ago! It is such a blessing for me to share the wonderful testimonies that are sent to us through our magazine, on our television broadcasts, and on our social media platforms. Each glorious moment is an opportunity for me to glorify God for the glorious things that He has done in the lives of people from all over the world. It reminds me of the powerful theme scripture that the Lord gave me for my 2026 Glorious Women's Conference, which was held at JDM International Headquarters in March. It says, "And when He had said these things, all His adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by Him" (Luke 13:17). As you read each testimony featured in Glorious Moments this month, I hope that you will rejoice with me for all the glorious things that have been done by Jesus through this ministry. Let's glorify God together!!

My husband and I started out as Partners with you almost from the very beginning. "Jesse is my preacher," my husband would say. We attended every service when you were in the area. When you first began in ministry, the meetings were small, but year after year they continued to grow. You have always been focused on giving your very best and honoring God. Through tapes, books, travel, TV, and now the internet, you are reaching the world with the Gospel. Souls are being saved every day! What an honor and a blessing it has been to be a Partner all these years. Thank you for your faithfulness and for praying for your Partners every day. Congratulations on your 50 years in ministry.

I watched the Glorious event online, and I was extremely overwhelmed in the Spirit while watching Pastor Cathy and Brother Jesse teach and preach the Gospel. It was truly a blessing. I can't wait for the Visionary Conference. Sending my love and blessings from Illinois.

Your Boardroom Chats have really been ministering to me! I discovered them on YouTube a few months ago, which led me to download your App so I can go back and watch the previous Boardroom Chats you've done. Thank you for being so transparent and consistent in your faith. When I listen to you, my spirit is fed and joy is stirred in my soul. And you always challenge me to believe BIG.

I am so grateful for what God is doing through JDM. I thank God for your obedience in spreading the Gospel to the nations. I want to share a testimony about the message you preached, "Give God a Job." I purchased a new vehicle—an Acura—which was a big purchase for me. The bank financed it for 72 months, but I told God I was giving Him a job. I said, "Lord, with Your help, I want to pay this vehicle off." In just one year, look what the Lord has done! He blessed me to pay the vehicle off in full. What an incredible blessing from the Lord. Jesse, I am so excited to be a Partner with JDM. I believe in the God you teach and preach about. Thank you for your obedience to go and share His Gospel.

My head is swimming with all the wonderful things I want to say to you both about how you've changed my life—the way I see life, what I think about life, and how I live life. Jesse, I'm sure you hear this often, but I pray you hear it afresh. The most wonderful thing I have learned from you is to take God at His Word. Now when I read the Scriptures, it's as if I can hear God's voice speaking them to me. It makes His Word so real and believable that I hold on to it and make it mine. Glory! Using my faith voice is so easy now, and I expect to see what I believe God for come to pass. I love your theme for this year. Jesse, you and Cathy are my two favorite teachers. I listen to you every day—both in the morning as I get ready for my day and in the evening as I wind down and prepare to call it a night. I love the Boardroom Chats and have watched them since they began in 2020. I'm sure I've seen every one of them and I have loved them all. I love being a Partner to your ministry, and I can honestly say my husband and I have been so blessed by the anointing of increase that is truly upon your life and ministry, trickling down on us.

My wife and I were visiting New Orleans to celebrate our 20th wedding anniversary, and we made it a point to visit Covenant Church. During that service, Brother Jesse preached about the kindness of Jesus and the power of kindness. I was greatly blessed by that message. I am truly blessed by the ministry of Brother Jesse and Sister Cathy, and I am grateful for the impact their teaching and example have had on my life.

While you don't know me personally, my husband and I first heard you speak at the KCM Southwest Believers' Convention last summer. My husband immediately connected with you—your background and your message. When we returned home, we immediately signed up to become monthly Partners of JDM. Since then, we have listened to your sermons almost every day. My husband speaks almost daily that we are going to be your first twenty million donor. When that happens, we would expect and appreciate an invitation to dinner. I give all the credit for our family's blessing to God and to what we have learned through our association with godly ministries and individuals who have poured into our lives over the years. I pray you take comfort in knowing what a profound impact you have made on the lives of countless people around the world, including my family just in the past seven months. I wanted to send my appreciation for all you have sacrificed and poured into the lives of so many people you may never meet one-on-one in this lifetime.

I am 96 years old, and I called your Partner Care line. After I sowed my donation, I was asked how they could pray for me. I began to cry because I was feeling very lonely and shared that I didn't have any friends. They prayed for God to bring friends into my life and to comfort me. Later, I called again and shared what had happened since that prayer. My son came and spent the afternoon with me, a former employee called and wanted to come over and spend the day with me, and someone I hadn't seen in a while sent me a beautiful bouquet of flowers. I was so encouraged by what the Lord had done, and I asked if we could pray again so that even more people would call and spend time with me.

I live in a small town called Satpayev in Kazakhstan in Central Asia. Recently, I discovered Jesse Duplantis' sermons and have been listening to them regularly. His messages have become a great source of encouragement and strength for me during a very difficult season of my life. I was married for seven years, and we have twin children who are now four years old. I have been divorced for two years. After leaving the church, my former husband began using drugs, and our family slowly fell apart. When it became unsafe for me and my children to stay with him, I made the decision to divorce for the sake of our safety. After the divorce, significant debts remained on my shoulders. For a long time, my former husband was not working and did not pay child support, so I had to borrow money just to provide for my children. Today, my total debt is 7,000,000 tenge (approximately $14,152 USD). Recently, I listened to the sermon about the four types of giving and why giving sometimes does not "work." I prayed, believed, and stepped out in faith by sowing 40,000 tenge (about $81 USD). It was the last money I had. I gave that offering at 10:00 a.m., and that same day, at 10:00 p.m., I unexpectedly received 250,000 tenge (about $505 USD). For me, this was an incredible testimony of God's faithfulness. I want to express my deepest and most sincere gratitude for your ministry—for your preaching, your message of faith, and the encouragement you bring. You may not realize how much your words strengthen single mothers who are walking through difficult circumstances. Sometimes one word of faith is enough, and God begins to move. Thank you for your dedication, your faithfulness, and for serving people all over the world.

It's Time To Use Your FAITH VOICE!

ROMANS 4:17

Jesse Duplantis' dynamic message, "Use Your Faith Voice," has had well over 50,000 views across all of our social media platforms and beyond! JDM followers and viewers from around the world are embracing this year's ministry theme and changing their lives with the truth of God's Word.

Be encouraged to start using your FAITH VOICE as you read these awesome testimonies:

"I love studying with you. I will never stop using my FAITH VOICE! You have taught me well, Jesse!"

"Brother Jesse, I spoke the Word, used my FAITH VOICE, and God manifested what I confessed! The devil is defeated in his attempts to take anything from me. Amen!"

"I'm using my FAITH VOICE, and I'm believing for something to reach fruition. Souls will be brought into the Kingdom because of this. I'm not allowing doubt in any form. It is mine already, and God is manifesting it even now. Thank you!"

"I pray and use my FAITH VOICE to stand for God's new open doors to advance me for His will and purpose! I want to grow so that I can serve in ministry for His Glory to help others to hear the Gospel of Christ Jesus. Amen!"

How Are You Using Your Faith Voice?

Let us know how Jesse's message, "Use Your Faith Voice," has impacted your life for Christ. Email us at partnercare@jdm.org so we can agree with you in FAITH. We believe in you. You are an overcomer!

HOLD FAST TO SOUND WORDS.

ONLY USE YOUR FAITH VOICE.
ONLY SAY WHAT FAITH SAYS.

Below is an excerpt from Jesse Duplantis' June letter to JDM Covenant Partners. Partners are those who support the ministry's vision of world evangelism with donations and/or product orders, and they receive a letter each month from Brother Jesse sharing what God has put on his heart. We hope you enjoy reading a portion of this month's letter and will consider becoming a Partner in JDM's vision of world evangelism.*

Dear Partner,

Only Say What Faith Says. Only Use Your Faith Voice is our theme this year, and the foundational scripture is Romans 4:17 where it says, "...even God, Who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were." Partner, I've quoted that verse to myself so many times it has become part of my nature. The principle of speaking the end result in faith has become how I live my life—I call that using my faith voice. I call that choosing to speak the promise.

I don't believe in just repeating words with no substance. I believe in using the substance of faith within me to say what I want and not what I have—and to keep on saying it until what I want becomes what I have. That is faith in action and what it means to "calleth those things which be not as though they were," like our foundational scripture says. There's often a season between "want" and "have" though—a season between when the promise is received in my spirit and when the promise manifests in my life. Some things come quicker than others, and I've learned how to keep myself on track with my faith regardless of time. I like to call it "stickability," and I've become like a dog on a bone when I'm believing for something now. I don't give up.

What does it take to develop this "stickability"? Go with me to 2 Timothy 1:13, because this verse gives wonderful instruction on how to stick with faith: "Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus." Paul was talking to Timothy in this verse, and I believe God is going to use this verse to talk to you today. Partner, sound words are faith words. Did you notice Paul told Timothy to say the faith words that he heard him say?

Point one today is this: Sound words spoken with your faith voice bring discipline to your thoughts and make you a disciplined thinker. To keep yourself grounded and immovable in your faith, you must hold fast to sound words. And one key to holding fast to your faith is to remember the origin point of those sound words. 2 Timothy 3:16-17 lets us know that the Word has been given to each of us when it says, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." Just like Paul reminded Timothy to remember the sound words of faith that he heard him say, you need to remind yourself that what you are believing for is based on a promise of God to you. It's not a vague word of ancient text for somebody else long ago. It is for YOU!

Partner, you cannot hold onto a good thing unless you have a good understanding of it. When you remind yourself that it's God's promise to you—whether it's blessing, health, family relationships, or whatever—you are reminding yourself that the Word of God is for you personally, and that it's backed by God Himself. You aren't making affirmations to yourself. You aren't believing for something without a foundation of truth under it. Your faith voice is based on your deep belief in the God Who loved you and sent His Son to die for you—it's based on the Father Who created you and wants to show you how to flow and function His way in life.

The Word helps you to think better. Saying what faith says helps you stay the course. When you speak soundly, spiritual stability is created, and when you are a stable believer, it shows others that they have a firm foundation that they can rely upon, too.

James 1:8 says, "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways." James 1:3-7 teaches us to let patience work, to ask for wisdom when we need it, and to fix ourselves without wavering. It tells us that if we get into the habit of wavering, it's like we are on the sea of life, tossed with every gust of wind. If we live like that, we're told we can't expect to receive anything from the Lord. That's why it tells us that double mindedness is instability, and lets us know that we need stickability!

Partner, you are needed in the Body of Christ. Your stability is needed and your faith voice needs to be heard—for your sake, the church's sake, and the world's sake. When you say what faith says, your words affect a lot of people, and maybe even whole nations. We are connected, and the prayers of believers reach far and wide in the spirit. We create atmospheres of faith wherever we physically go, but we also send power when we pray and it affects others, too. Faith destroys all distance between God and man, and prayer destroys all distance between you and whoever you're praying for. There are angels on assignment for you, and the Word will work for you regardless of distance.

The next point I want to share is this: When you say what faith says, it produces confidence in large forms and large expressions. A faith voice is a very loud voice that starts in your heart and makes its way out of your mouth. If doubt arises in your mind, your faith voice will rise up to shut it down. When you hold fast to sound words and develop a habit of using your faith voice, you'll shut down wrong thinking, wrong doing, and wrong believing. You'll see doubting imaginations for what they are, and cast them down like 2 Corinthians 10:5 says. You'll correct yourself!

JUNE PARTNER OFFER

Where Is the CANCELLATION VERSE?

In Isaiah 55:11, God declares that His words shall not return to Him void. So why are so many Christians not living in the reality of this and receiving what He's promised in the Bible?

Fuel your faith with revelation power as Jesse teaches you how God honors His Word by faith and fellowship. Whether you're standing on Scripture to heal your body, your relationships, your finances, or anything that He's promised, God will not cancel His Word to you. It's time to shake off any doubt that could stop you from receiving and grow in the unshakeable faith of God within you. Learn how to develop an intimate fellowship with Jesus and believe His Word the way that He believes it—if God said it, He will do it!

For your Partnership of $50 or more this month, you can request this message by Jesse on DVD, CD, or both formats. Or for your Partnership of any amount, you can request this message on CD.

Monthly Partner Offers are also available with Automatic Partnership upon request.

When you believe wrongly, you act wrongly, and then you become a failure looking for some place to fail. But the other side of the coin is that when you use your faith voice, it will lift you up and steer you back to thinking like God and talking like God, just like Ephesians 5:1 (NKJV) says: "Therefore be imitators of God as dear children." You can't do that unless you say what God says. Glory!

Let me close this out now, Partner, by letting you know how important your prayers and seeds to this ministry are to the lives of others. It's much more than words and money to Cathy and I—it's souls! Thank you for helping us reach people in these last days. Partner, believe God for your 100-fold harvest. Like I so often say, you deserve it. Use your faith voice and call it in. Remember that the Lord of the harvest is your Lord, and His every Word of blessing is for you. Until the next time, keep the faith!

Love You,
Jesse Duplantis

JUNE CONFESSIONS OF FAITH

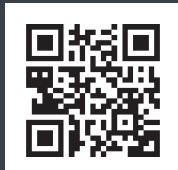

- I only say what faith says—I follow Romans 4:17 and "calleth those things which be not as though they were" until they are! I refuse doubt and choose to only use my faith voice!
- I am a disciplined thinker—I obey 2 Timothy 1:13 and "Hold fast the form of sound words..." Sound words are words of faith, and they keep me grounded and immovable in the truth.
- God's promises were made to me, and I take them personally—I know that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable" for me. My faith is based on the Word of God.
- I walk by faith, exercise patience, and ask for wisdom from God when I need it—I do not waver, knowing that "A double minded man is unstable in all his ways" (James 1:8). I stick with faith!
- I am confident and stable—using my faith voice lifts me up and helps me stick to what I believe. I choose to do what Ephesians 5:1 says: "Therefore be imitators of God as dear children."
- My faith voice needs to be heard—for my sake, the church's sake, and the world's sake. My prayers, my faith, and my seeds affect my life and the lives of others. We are connected!

*To receive your monthly letter and confessions of faith from Brother Jesse, become a Covenant Partner and help us to continue "Reaching People and Changing Lives, One Soul at a Time." Details about ways to give are on the next column.

THE MINISTRY OF CHEERFULNESS

It is amazing how many Christians are shocked when trouble surfaces in their lives. They have this idea that salvation through Christ brings a candy-coated life. Jesus plainly said that while we are in the world we will have tribulation or trouble. But He commanded us to be of good cheer, because He has overcome this world.

CATHY DUPLANTIS

When I walk around our awesome International Headquarters in the New Orleans area, I am often reminded of our first “office” in our small two-bedroom yellow house where we began our ministry. It consisted of an old borrowed typewriter that was stored under our bed and came out of hiding during the noon naptime of the eight children I cared for in our home from 7:30am to 5:30pm, five days a week. Since I was home anyway with our daughter, Jodi, and unable to travel with Jesse, this child day care business was a major blessing to us and the children God sent to me.

Jesse didn't have anyone to help him on the road in those early years, so he did it all. He loaded the car with products, drove to the church, set up the products and the small sound system he carried around, sold tapes before the service, sang and played the piano, preached the Gospel, prayed for the people, and ran to the tape table to duplicate and sell the tapes after the service. He then reloaded everything back into the car and drove home after the revival meeting was over. Then, when Jesse arrived home, he couldn't unload the car (our only car) because every bit of space in our small home was already filled with boxes of his Christian music albums and ministry materials.

Jesse and I are not ashamed of our small beginnings. We can clearly see how God imparted explosions of wisdom from His Word to help us to walk in His great plan for our ministry and for our personal lives. When we were obedient to act on God's Word and put it to work, He moved miraculously to supply every need. Both Jesse and I

I have discovered that no matter what you want to build in life, wisdom and knowledge working together can get the job done.

are continually fascinated by the amazing faithfulness of our wonderful God!

It is amazing to think about all that we were able to do with just the two of us, especially now that God has blessed us with a large staff that help us reach people and change lives with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. But during those early years, it never seemed like a hard thing. We were establishing a firm foundation for our future ministry and learning to trust in God every step of the way. We know now that when you are totally submitted to God's will for your life, He gives you grace to do what He calls you to do, no matter how difficult or impossible it may be.

Built on the Word

I'll never forget putting the Word to work for a larger home for my family. The year was 1980, and I'd had enough of that crowded two-bedroom yellow house with no storage space, and I was determined for Jesse to have his own study to prepare his sermons. That's when I adopted the phrase, “A woman has to do what a woman has to do,” and launched my battle plan.

The first step was to establish my house on the Rock—a Word foundation. So, I searched the Word for scriptures that I could stand on for my miracle. My favorite scripture that I discovered during that time was Proverbs 24:3-4 (AMPC):

Through skillful and godly Wisdom is a house (a life, a home, a family) built, and by understanding it is established [on a sound and good foundation],

And by knowledge shall its chambers [of every area] be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

I found a large, blank sheet of paper and began to draw a house plan with all the rooms I needed (and wanted) for my family and taped it to the door of my old refrigerator in my tiny kitchen. My plan had more than double the space of our current little house, and included a private study for Jesse, two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchen, living room, and an attached two-car garage.

After I had finished drawing my plan and writing my scriptures on every corner of the page, I wrote in bold letters across the bottom of the plan: “Subject to change by the Master Builder!" I was giving God room to do one of His "too much" things, and that is just what He did.

Each time I walked in my tiny kitchen, I would lay my hand on that house plan and thank God for supplying all my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus (Philippians 4:19). When someone stopped by and noticed the large drawing on my refrigerator door, I would jump at the chance to tell them all about the wonderful house God was preparing for me and my family. I recognized that every time I did that, I was establishing my house on a firm foundation and building my house in the realm of the Spirit.

It wasn't very long before God supernaturally supplied all that I had written down on that floor plan, and more. He added a formal dining room, a third bedroom, and a beautiful, large screened-in patio. Then, God filled every room (chamber) with all precious and pleasant riches (decorations). God is too much!

Since that time, I have discovered that no matter what you want to build in life, wisdom and knowledge working together can get the job done. The same verse in Proverbs 24 that helped me to build and furnish my physical house is full of power to build a life, family, business, ministry, or a strong spiritual house.

The instant you are born again, God grants you a fresh, new beginning and provides all the tools necessary to continue building a life that will give glory to Him.

Choose the Right Building Materials

All successful body builders avoid the things that will hinder their growth and only feed on foods with the proper nutrients that will produce the results they need. In the same way, you are the one that will determine the strength of your spiritual house by the things that you choose to feed on each day. Proverbs 14:1 (AMPC) says, “Every wise woman builds her house, but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.”

If you have made foolish choices in the past, you can turn it around today. Don't rehearse failures with your mouth. The most wonderful thing about our Father is that “If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9).

In an instant, God can clean away the old and give you a new start with Jesus. When you continue to stand on God's Word, you will see the fulfillment of God's promise in Proverbs 12:7: “The wicked are overthrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand.”

Be a Wise Builder

In Matthew 7:24-27, Jesus told the parable about the wise builder that built his house on a rock. The Bible says that rain, floods, and wind beat on that house and “it fell not.” But the foolish man built his house on the sand, and when the “rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.”

Both houses were attacked by the elements, but only one stood strong and did not fall. Why? Because only one builder was wise enough to take time to hear the Word and do the Word. Jesus revealed that a strong spiritual house can only be built by “whosoever heareth these sayings of Mine, and doeth them.”

What sayings was Jesus referring to? Beginning with Matthew chapter five, Jesus imparted wisdom with His teachings of the Beatitudes, salt and light, higher righteousness, anger and reconciliation, adultery and divorce, oaths and retaliation, and neighbors and enemies. In chapter six, He continued without interruption to teach on piety and almsgiving, prayer and fasting, possessions and masters, anxiety and God's kingdom. Then, in chapter seven, Jesus taught on judging and hypocrisy, prayer and the golden rule, the straight and wide gates, and how to test false prophets. He then finished with the teaching of the wise builder that builds his house upon a rock by hearing His sayings and doing them.

It is strange to think of yourself as a house for God, but when you are born again, that is exactly what you become. First Corinthians 3:9 & 16 say, “For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building... Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?"

When you turn to God and repent of your sins, Jesus makes His home in your heart and transforms you into a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:17). The instant you are born again, God grants you a fresh, new beginning and provides all the tools necessary to continue building a life that will give glory to Him.

Be determined to daily spend time with Jesus and allow Him to impart wisdom from His Word that will strengthen your faith. Instead of being tossed around with every wave of doctrine, you will know where to go and what to do when you get there. Be determined to be a wise builder by choosing the right building materials that will establish a firm foundation for your glorious future. 🌐

“Jesse & Cathy, Wow! 50 years of ministry! Glory to God. I remember my 50th year so well, and you will for the rest of your lives. The Spirit of the Living God is developing you and working with you in every area of your lives—spirit, soul, body, financially, and in every way! Well, Jesse, you know how Gloria and I feel about you and Cathy and our “Glory Rider” days! Father, we thank You for this magnificent family. 50 years of preaching the Gospel for the kingdom and going all over the world preaching the Word of Faith. We praise You for this ministry, and we thank You for it. God loves you, we love you, and Jesus is Lord!”

“Jesse and Cathy, congratulations on 50 years of serving the Lord Jesus and serving your generation according to the will of God! What a blessing you both are. We have been friends for just about ALL those 50 years. We are partners with you, and you have been such a blessing to us and to the whole world. It truly is amazing! We love you so much. You both are preaching the Word of Faith and changing lives. The best is yet to come! When we get together, we have 50 years of old stories that we talk about, and we have so much fun. Thank you for being our friends and for being a blessing to our world.”
