MAKE A HABIT OF HEARING THE LORD

YOUR FAITH COMES “BY HEARING, AND HEARING BY THE WORD OF GOD.”
(ROM. 10:17)

Below is an excerpt from Jesse Duplantis' October letter to JDM Covenant Partners. Partners are those who support the ministry's vision of world evangelism with donations and/or product orders, and they receive a letter each month from Brother Jesse sharing what God has put on his heart. We hope you enjoy reading a portion of this month's letter and will consider becoming a Partner in JDM's vision of world evangelism.*

Dear Partner,

God has been doing so many great things this year. The favor is flowing heavily on this ministry, and I believe the reason is because of the faithfulness of our partners. I want you to know that your prayers and financial support touch my heart deeply. Do you want to know why? It's because I know that you understand the vision to, “Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature” that Jesus gave to us in Mark 16:15. It's the focus of this ministry, and has been for 50 years, and I want to thank you once again for your generosity in helping us to keep on preaching this glorious Gospel around the world. Now, let's get into the theme for this year.

As you know, God told me to share these words with my partners all this year: “Only Say What Faith Says. Only Use Your Faith Voice.” Our founding scripture is Romans 4:17, which says, “...even God, Who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.” When we speak in faith, we're doing what the father of faith, Abraham, did: He spoke by faith like God, and he imitated the Father like a dear child. Faith isn't silent. Faith speaks. It “calleth,” and it also ignites a passion to be a doer of the Word, too. Partner, if you take this theme to heart, it will change everything in life—spiritually, physically, and financially. It works for me, and I know it will work for you. God is no respecter of persons.

In Matthew 12:34, Jesus said, “...For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.” That scripture is part of the sword of the Spirit, and it cuts both ways. You see, whatever is in abundance in your heart will come out of your mouth, and that power of faith you produce will go to work. You'll either keep perpetuating a problem or you will be drawing in a solution. It's just a fact that whatever we believe in our heart will make its way out of our mouth—it's faith in action. Jesus encouraged us in the Word over and over to have faith in God and to simply believe, like little children. There is power in keeping it simple, so don't complicate your faith. Like I always say, “Say what you want, and not just what you have.” That's using your faith voice. God did it. Abraham did it. Jesus did it. And in this letter, I'm going to show you how the prophet Elijah did it, too.

Go with me to the book of 1 Kings, chapter eighteen. This chapter is where Elijah has a showdown with the priests of Baal (you probably remember that story) because the king and the people of Israel had allowed themselves to be deceived into worshipping Baal, the god of the Canaanites. Now, I could write all day long on that great display of God's power to the people that day, but what I really want you to see is this: even after that powerful fire-from-heaven miracle, Elijah kept the faith—he moved right on to the next thing. You see, Elijah didn't see his faith as a hit-and-miss thing. No, Elijah lived by faith. What was in his heart came out of his mouth over and over again, and it made his life an adventure we marvel at even today. My first point today is this: Our faith voice is what brings true adventure in life. Even when we cannot see anything, our faith moves us—we believe, we speak, we act, and we keep moving from faith to faith.

So, what happened right after Elijah's showdown? He moved right from the false-god-worshipping problem of Israel to the next problem on the list: the weather! You see, there was a terrible drought going on at this time, too. But instead of talking the problem, like, “Man, this is some bad weather! It doesn't look like we're ever going to get rain,” Elijah let the abundance of his heart move him to speak the solution as if it was already a done deal. I want you to notice in 1 Kings 18:41 that Elijah told King Ahab to go up and eat and drink because, “...there is a sound of abundance of rain.”

Now, there was no audible sound of rain. King Ahab didn't hear a thing. Nobody did. They didn't see anything either. There wasn't one cloud in the sky. Nothing in the natural supported the statement “there is a sound of abundance of rain,” but I want you to notice that Elijah was calling those things that be not as though they were. Like our theme, he had decided to “Only Say What Faith Says. Only Use Your Faith Voice.” Elijah didn't stop there either. He got up, took his servant with him to the top of Mount Carmel, and prayed fervently. The Word tells us he bowed to the ground and put his face between his knees in targeted prayer—a sign of not only humility and honor, but also submission to God. This wasn't just a bunch of empty words. His heart, mouth, and even his posture was abundant with faith in what God could do.

Elijah prayed in faith with full expectation. We know this because he kept telling his servant to go and look toward the sea for rain. Seven times Elijah sent him to look and see the rain. Six times he came back saying, “There is nothing.” But on that seventh time? A little cloud formed and started rising out of the sea. Before long, the sky turned black, clouds and wind came, and then heavy rain poured down. The drought was broken, and then what? Ahab was able to ride to tell Jezebel all the things that had been happening, and Elijah was on to the next problem to solve with faith. He was so excited about what came next that he outran King Ahab's chariots too, which was another miracle!

God's hand was on Elijah's life, and Elijah's heart was on God's will. God wanted His people to get away from those false gods and to draw close to Him so that He could love and bless them. For that to happen, they needed to live in obedience to His good will, and they needed someone to tell them the truth and show them the way. That man was Elijah, and it was in a time of division and chaos. Even the drought miracle shows us that all it takes is one. I want you to notice that the sound of rain was only in Elijah's ear. Now, how does faith like that come? It comes to all of us the same way: “So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God” (Romans 10:17). So, Elijah had a habit of listening—of hearing, and hearing what God had to say, and it moved him to speak with faith. Elijah said what was going to happen instead of just believing it was going to happen. He mixed his faith with words, and mixed his words with prayer and action.

Another point I want you to know is this: Your faith voice will create the passion for progress. Build your faith and speak it out, knowing that it's going to energize you for what's in front of you to handle. You see, Partner, faith is the purest of functions, and faith is the power of the human soul. Without it, it is impossible to please God and impossible to make the first step toward achievement. That's why I just don't confess the Word, but I've moved on to possessing the Word. I make it my own. I take ownership over what belongs to me though the blood of Jesus and the Word God gave to all of us who believe. That's not cockiness; that's confidence and assurance in God's Word, and it comes by hearing the Word on repeat, and by speaking and moving on what God said. Glory!

I've said it before and I'll say it again: Progress is the definition of Christianity. Jesus said, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature." Didn't He say that, Partner? Well, we are doing that with our faith voice, our faith words, and our faith actions! Thank you again for carrying this vision along with Cathy and me, and for letting us pray for your vision to be accomplished, too. Thank you for every prayer you pray for us and for every seed you sow into this work. There is nothing too small or too big. God multiplies it because we believe, we pray, and we move! That's the life of faith, and it's an adventure. Partner, we are doing this life together—from faith to faith and glory to glory. So, let's do it, ok? Until next time, like I always say, keep the faith!

— Jesse

OCTOBER CONFESSIONS OF FAITH

- "For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks." Thank You, God, for helping me fill my heart with good things. My heart is full of Your wonderful Word! (Matt.12:34)
- I am determined to only say what faith says and use my faith voice. God, You "callesth those thing which be not as though they were," and I follow Your lead and do it, too! (Rom. 4:17)
- My faith voice brings true adventure in life. Even when I can't see anything, my faith moves me—I believe, I speak, I act, and I keep moving from faith to faith.
- Like the story of Elijah using his faith voice to break a drought in 1 Kings 18:41 saying, "there is a sound of abundance of rain," I choose to hear with the ears of faith, too. I will not be moved.
- "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God." Like Elijah, I have a habit of repeatedly listening to You, Lord. My faith grows stronger the more I hear Your Word. (Rom. 10:17)
- My faith voice creates passion for progress. When I speak by faith, I am energized to do what I need to do in life. Faith is power! "But without faith it is impossible to please Him." (Heb.11:6)
- I have a road only I can walk—I have a personal mission that requires my faith. Lord, thank You for helping me to fulfill my destiny and reach my destination. My life is dedicated to You!

BOOKS FOR PARTNERS BY JESSE

THE MINISTRY OF CHEERFULNESS

It is amazing how many Christians are shocked when trouble surfaces in their lives. They have this idea that salvation through Christ brings a candy-coated life. Jesus plainly said that while we are in the world we will have tribulation or trouble. But He commanded us to be of good cheer, because He has overcome this world.

JESSE DUPLANTIS

God Will Wipe Away All Tears

In this issue of our ministry magazine, we have printed an excerpt from my book, Heaven: Close Encounters of the God Kind, in which I describe an event that happened in my life that I will never ever forget.

In August of 1988, I was preaching a meeting in Magnolia, Arkansas, and just as I was about to eat lunch with the pastor, the Lord put an urgency in my spirit to return to my room. I obeyed, went to the hotel and knelt down beside the bed to pray. Suddenly, I felt a suction as if I was being pulled out of the room. In an instant, I was riding in some sort of chariot or cable car and looking into the face of an angel who told me, “You have an appointment.”

That day, I saw things I never thought I’d ever see, and I heard things I didn’t think I’d ever hear, at least not in my earthly life, and I was given a message from Christ to share. It took a few months before I felt I could share my experience with others. I was concerned about taking the heat for sharing something so out-of-the-norm; but once I shared what happened to me, I was inundated with reports from people all over the world that were touched and changed by what I saw and what Christ told me.

For this issue, I chose this particular part of the experience because I believe that it will stir your heart, as it always does mine, to realize the love and compassion that Christ has towards the lost...and to put an urgency in your heart, remembering Jesus’ command to me: “Tell them I’m coming!”

Jesus had just revealed His heart's desire to me. He asked me to tell others that He's coming back to earth. He was filled with compassion and was waiting for me to respond to Him.

I said, "Lord, I'll do everything I know to do. I love You with all of my being. But I've made some mistakes in my life."

He said, "I don't know that you did. I washed them away. You're free."

"Thank You!" I said.

I saw tears well up in His eyes as He made the next statement to me. He said, "The worst day of My life is yet to come." Then suddenly the Father was speaking through the Lord Jesus Christ—God was sharing with His creation. He said, "You know that Scripture where I said I will wipe away all tears in heaven?"

"You know, Lord, I've never truly understood that," I replied. I knew that John spoke of God's plan to remove all tears in Revelation 21:1-5:

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and be their God.

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

And He that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And He said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

Now, Jesus was explaining this mystery to me saying, "Those include the tears in My eyes, Jesse. On that great Judgment Day, I will have to tell some of the creation I love to depart from Me. I dread that day. I dread it! I dread it!"

He had tears in His eyes when He was saying this. It touched my heart. We always focus on God wiping tears from our eyes. We do not understand the love that God has for us. I wanted to reach out to Him and comfort Him, so I put my hand on the Lord. I didn't know what else to do. I could tell that Jesus was hurting.

There were other times in Scripture that we knew Jesus cried. When He wept for Jerusalem, He could change the situation. We saw His tears for Lazarus, but He raised Lazarus from the dead. We saw His tears at the crucifixion, but He changed that memory with His resurrection. But once the judgment comes, He can't change it. His Word will be final. When He has to turn man away, His most prized possession, He can't change it back. He dreads that day.

Then He said, "Jesse, it's final. I can't change it. Tears flowed from My eyes the day My creation, Adam, fell. But I knew I would send Myself. I had a chance to touch people. But that day is coming, and it's final. Once it's said, I can't change it. I have to wipe the tears from My eyes."

The Lord was firm with me, "Tell them I'm coming, Jesse."

I said, "Lord, when are You coming back?"

He didn't answer me directly, but He said, "Everyone looks for the signs when they ought to look for My witness."

I understood Him to mean that we are looking at the signs of the times as the return of the Lord. He wants us to look at the witness of Who He is, the Person of Jesus Christ.

I realized that He didn't know when He was coming in terms of the day and year. But I see that His coming is not just His return, it is the witness of Who He is. When He said in the gospels that His kingdom was not of this world, He was trying to get the people to see the witness of Who He is and not just understand the signs that pointed to Him as the Messiah. I felt that He was saying our eyes should be on Him, Jesus, instead of on the great tribulation period.

But as His Body, we are in disobedience by fighting each other. We're not coming together with the witness of Who He is. Satan's greatest ally is our division in the Body of Christ. I think Jesus wants us, the Church, to be looking more at Who He is instead of focusing on our differences.

If the Body of Christ, the Church, would begin to reveal Who Christ is and lift Him—the Person of Jesus Christ—up for the world to see, people will be drawn to Him. I think we can delay His coming by waiting for a sign before we act on His Word instead of showing the witness of Who He is to a world of lost and dying people.

Many of us think that miracles get everybody to come to church. But miracles actually create doubt. John the Baptist didn't have a single miracle in his ministry, yet he caused moral reform. I think he's the only preacher who ever had the church come out to see him. Even the biggest heathen in town, Herod, had respect for him.

We need to preach Jesus, the Person, and Christ, the message of His anointing. People don't understand Jesus as a Person. I know Him as a Person. I didn't get that knowledge in heaven; I got it that night in Boston, Massachusetts, when I got saved. I believe if the Church worked together to show the world a witness of Who Jesus is, and if we would preach the message of Christ, we could evangelize the world in a day.

Jesus couldn't tell me when He is coming. I could see why the Father hadn't revealed to Jesus when that day of judgment will be. I felt Jesus would have told me if He had known the day, so we could all be prepared. I don't think He could keep that secret because His love for mankind is so strong. Mark 13 speaks of signs that precede the return of the Lord. Verses 32-37 say:

But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

For the Son of Man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the Master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

Lest coming suddenly He find you sleeping.

And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

I realized that God deeply desires our love. I didn't know before how much He needed me to reach out to other people. I have always thought of how much I need Him, not how much He needs me.

I said, "I'll do anything for You. I know that may be a rash statement; Peter said it. But as far as I know, I would do anything for You."

He smiled at me and said, "I chose you. No one else wanted you, and I need you, Jesse."

I said, "Okay. I'll tell every soul I meet that You're coming."

He said, "I brought you here for this." Then He said, "Now you must go back."

"I would like to stay here," I said.

I could see the compassion in Jesus' eyes. He doesn't want anyone to perish, but wants all to come to repentance so they will receive all that the Father has for them.

"You shall be here for eternity," He said. Then He looked at David and the angel. "David, Jesse likes mountains. Take him by way of the mountains."

He looked at me and smiled, and I noticed His features again. I couldn't tell what color His eyes were, but they looked like pools of love. He said, "I'll see you soon. One day we'll never part. It will be forever, and sooner than you think."

Isaiah prophesied of God's promise to wipe away tears in Isaiah 25:8:

"He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of His people shall He take away from off all the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it."

John learned the same lesson when he saw Heaven. Revelation 7:17 records:

"For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes."

Salvation Prayer

In Heaven, I saw the great compassion Jesus has for those who haven't received Him as their Savior. If you haven't received Him as your Savior, I want you to know that He loves you and wants you to spend eternity with Him—so much that He took me to Heaven to tell you He's coming soon.

If you don't know Jesus as your personal Lord and Savior, I would like to take this opportunity to introduce you to Him. As you say these words, if you'll believe them with your heart, you will be born again (Romans 10:9-10).

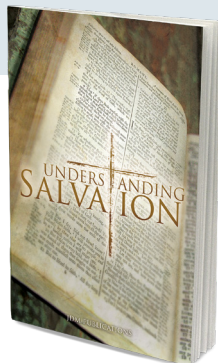

Jesus, come into my life. Forgive me of my sins. I ask You to cleanse my heart and make me a new person in You right now. I believe that You are the Son of God and that You were sent by the Father to die on the cross for me.

Jesus, I want to thank You for loving me enough to die for me. I accept all that Your shed blood bought for me on the cross, and I receive You as my Savior and Lord. In Your name I pray. Amen.

Congratulations! You're a "new creature" in Christ, and as 2 Corinthians 5:17 in the New Testament says, "old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." Friend, you have a whole new life with Jesus to look forward to starting now, right here on Earth and for eternity in Heaven.

Would you please write to me and let me know of your new birth in Jesus? I'd like to send you our free booklet, Understanding Salvation, to help you begin your new journey with Christ. Just go to JDM.org (click on "Do You Know Jesus?"), scan the QR code below, or use the response/order form included in this magazine. Always remember that Jesus loves you and so do I, and I am praying for you as you grow your faith in the best Friend you will ever have!

Love You,
Jesse

GLORIOUS MOMENTS with Cathy

Jesse and I are thankful for the many people that are being reached and lives that are being changed by hearing the truth of the Gospel. Psalm 78:4 (NLT) declares, "We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the LORD, about His power and His mighty wonders."

For 50 years, we have been declaring the power and goodness of our God to every generation—using every available voice to spread the truth that God came to give them abundant life (John 10:10). People of all ages are writing to us about the glorious deeds of the LORD that they have experienced, and I love sharing them with you in our magazine each month and on our weekly television broadcast.

Each day we all have an opportunity to tell others about what God has done, what He is doing, and what He will do in the lives of all that will believe His Word. I pray you will seize the opportunity to tell others what God has done in your life or in the lives of those that we have shared in this issue of Voice of the Covenant, our ministry magazine. Be blessed, strengthened, and encouraged today!

What do you do when your father has just had brain surgery? You pray and read Voice of the Covenant magazine, of course! Glory to God for Jesse Duplantis Ministries! I have learned so much and grown exponentially because of your teachings. I listen to your sermons and Boardroom Chats so often that my family now calls Jesse my best friend! Perhaps that is because I am always listening, or maybe because we share a similar feisty disposition. Praise Jesus! You two share the glory of Christ unlike any others. I will never be able to adequately thank you.

This is my first time watching, and I am so blessed by your teaching! Your teachings are down-to-earth, and I can relate so well. May God continue to bless you!

Thank you for sharing your life in the Word. It blesses me so much. You make it seem so easy. Over the years, you have stayed faithful. God bless you!

Two years ago, I walked into your office with a $10,000 dollar seed the Lord instructed me to sow. At that time, I was believing God for a building to purchase for my daycare center and for success with my commercial properties in Alabama. You prayed over my seed, spoke a word declaring that I would receive a huge harvest, and I left trusting God. Not long after, the owner of a commercial property in the Lower 9th Ward contacted me—unsolicited. His building, which covers an entire block, was listed for $1.5 million dollars. By the grace of God, he sold it to me for half the asking price! I don't have the space here to explain all that I can do with this property, but I can tell you this: it will house a childcare center, community restoration work, and revivals. Thank you, Dr. Duplantis, for meeting with me. I am eternally grateful for your obedience and your faith. I cannot wait for you and Pastor Cathy to come see what the Lord has done.

We have been partners of JDM for years. We are so thankful for Brother Jesse, Pastor Cathy, and the entire JDM team! You will never know how much your ministry changed my seeking heart—from how I was raised to hungering for more, being filled with the Spirit, and ultimately finding JDM through a random phone call with a prayer ministry.

I have a praise report. I reached out to you years ago and asked for prayer for my son. He is now following Jesus! It was a painful journey, but I never lost faith. I also thought about Jesse's testimony regarding his lifestyle and his mother's prayers. I am in awe of our God's love, patience, and mercy. I am so thankful for Jesse, his family, and his entire staff.

I am beyond grateful for your ministry. I grew up watching my mom follow your teachings, and now I am able to do the same. Thank you so much for your prayers! A while ago, you prayed for my friend. She is now completely healed of her stomach trouble, able to eat and enjoy company, and growing stronger in her relationship with the Lord. You also prayed for another friend of mine when he was diagnosed with kidney disease. He is now well, strong, and back to work. God is so good and so great! Thank you again, and I love you all.

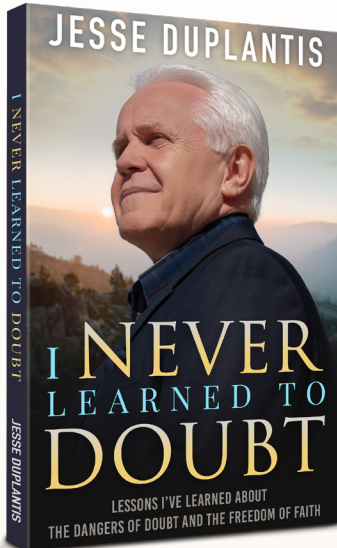

First, I want to thank you for how your teachings have helped me over the past several years. When you announced you are believing for 20,000 people to donate $1,000, I wished I could participate. I have been out of work on medical disability due to small strokes since June 2025, so finances have been very tight. In May, the Lord blessed me by putting it on someone's heart to pay my rent for June & July. I try to speak of things that are not as though they are, so after the initial shock and joy, I said, "Yes! Now I can be a blessing to JDM!" I prayed about how much to sow, and sent $500 in June and $500 in July. My testimony does not stop there. On July 2, I received a letter from my employer of 15 years, letting me go effective July 1, and ending my medical leave and insurance as well. That same day, July 2, 2026, I also received your thank-you letter for my June donation—praying for a hundredfold harvest and for God to do a new thing spiritually, physically, and financially. Your letter was dated June 10, 2026, but I didn't get it until July 2, the same day I was let go. I needed that reassurance on that day! God knew what was coming and held your letter back from delivery because He knew I would need that message on that very day! Lately, anytime I start to struggle with how things appear, He has me reread your letter. It is such a blessing!

Thank you, Pastor Cathy and Brother Jesse. I just love hearing you talk together on the Boardroom Chats. You give such life to the Word and are so sincere in your words to each other. Cathy, I love that you are so brave and not conformed to this world, but instead reflect the God inside of you—the Holy Spirit. Thank you, Brother Jesse, for being so true and honest. I am praying for you every day because I love you and Jesus, and I love being a partner to JDM. Thank you for giving the Gospel to the world. I am so thankful that I can watch your sermons on the JDM app. Greetings from Norway.

Brother Jesse, I want to thank you for your message. You said three words that I had never heard before. I was driving at the time, and I actually had to pull over. It felt like a spear of heavenly love pierced my heart. Those three words were, "God needs me!" When I pulled over, I felt the very presence of God Himself. I just cried and cried, telling Him thank you. Years ago, God told me that my ministry was "pothole filling." I always knew that, but not until I heard you say those three words did I realize that He actually needed me! Thank you. Since then, I tell those three words to everyone I see. I am 57 years old, and I have never felt this way before. I will continue telling everyone. I always did my work as unto God, but now I know it is a two-way street.

I'm originally from New Orleans, but I now live elsewhere. In 1988, I went to Victory Church for a service where Jesse was speaking because I had heard some of his messages before. Although I attended a different church at the time, I did wind up going to Victory later on. Turns out, this was the night Jesse shared his Heaven testimony, along with a few others. If I'm not mistaken, it was the first time he had ever shared it in a service. I know people doubt him about this, but if you had been in that service, you would have a different opinion. It was one of the most intense services I've ever been in, and the presence of God was tangible. I saw people crying with joy all around me. I was also a new believer at the time and was still learning about God. I kept looking up, and the entire top part of the inside of the building had a very visible mist. Being a new believer, I initially thought it might be something from the weather outside. However, as I grew in my faith and looked back on it, I realized that it was the actual presence of God. It was one of the most glorious services I have ever attended.

CATHY DUPLANTIS

EXPECT

Explosive Increase

I have always been the type of person that will try to fix things myself instead of asking for help. Jesse calls me a “low-maintenance woman.” I am not sure if Jesse really believes that statement or if he’s just very good at getting me to do jobs that he would rather not do.

Proverbs 3:13 in The Amplified Bible, Classic Edition says that wisdom and understanding come from God’s Word and life’s experiences. I know that’s true because of a life experience that brought great wisdom into my life one cold night when I was just seventeen years old.

At that time, my mom and my three sisters and I lived in a cute rent house with a gas furnace that was always going out at the wrong time. I saw mom light it many times, so instead of waking up my mother on that winter night, I decided to light the gas furnace myself and warm the house up for our family.

After I located the matches in the kitchen, I tiptoed back to the furnace in the hall and quietly opened the small metal door on the gas burner. I remember kneeling down so that I could clearly see the spot that would need the match. I turned the valve to the gas burner and began striking the first match.

I didn't pay much attention to the hissing sound of the escaping gas because I thought it would just be a second before the match was lit. Wrong. As the first and second match failed, that continuing hissing sound was starting to concern me. Wisdom was trying to invade my mind. Just as I was about to give up on the matches and turn the gas valve off, the third match finally ignited.

As you can imagine, a great explosive power hit me in the face and arms and knocked me to the floor. The entire household came running toward the loud booming sound that had awakened them in the middle of the night.

"Cathy, are you alright?" they all asked almost in unison.

Looking up from the floor into the concerned faces of my mom and three sisters I said, "I think so."

After close examination by everyone, they could see that my skin was not hurt, but the explosion had singed all of the hair on my face and arms. My eyebrows and eyelashes were gone. We were all thankful that my straight, waist-length blonde hair had been pulled back into the ponytail that I always wore to bed. A very thin top layer of my hair had been disintegrated by the explosion and left a residue of short, frizzy, burnt hair to frame my freshly embarrassed face. I learned a lot that day and have great respect for the power of gas and matches.

That life experience is still teaching me lessons. I know that obedience is like striking a match that will ignite the supernatural power of God for the glorious life that God has designed for me to live. I may not witness the explosion immediately, but I know that something supernatural is at work in the realm of the Spirit. When the right elements are in place, combustion will occur and power will be released.

Obedience and faith are like the hissing gas and the flame of the match on that cold night when I was seventeen. Once those two things connect, you can expect explosive increase and receive everything that God has promised in His Word.

YOUR Increase Is the Result of Something That YOU Do

People often use the word explosion to describe the amazing growth in their business, church, or spiritual life. A very powerful woman of God sat next to me in a meeting one day and declared, "I am so excited about the service tonight, I feel like I am about to explode!"

That word has taken on an entirely new focus for me since I discovered that one of its definitions is "a sudden, great increase." There is nothing more explosive than God's Word! When we call upon the name of Jesus for our salvation, we can expect to be changed suddenly. Whenever God's Word is declared in faith, we can expect a great increase of joy, love, peace, wisdom, favor, health, prosperity, or whatever is needed. I believe that it is time for your sudden, great increase!

Psalm 115:14 says, "The Lord shall increase you more and more, you and your children." Not only is it God's will for you to increase; He is looking out for your children, too. Proverbs 13:22 declares, "A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just."

God has a plan to get the wealth of the sinner into the hands of the just. However, like every promise from God, this too is conditional. You must realize that your increase is always the result of something that you do. Deuteronomy 6:3 says, "Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey."

When you observe and do what His Word says, you are actually activating the explosive power of God in your life. In Luke 6:38, Jesus said, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again."

You must realize that your increase is always the result of something that

Notice again that the measure of increase is determined by what you do. The seedtime and harvest principle is the way that God's kingdom operates on this earth (Genesis 8:22; Mark 4:30-32). When you give, you can expect an explosive increase that is so abundant, it is running over. Remember that your increase is always the result of something that you do!

Look for the Increase God Is Gathering to You

The increase you need may be all around you, but in order to bring it in, you will have to obey God's Word. That's what happened to the disciples. After the death of Jesus, they left their calling and went fishing. Jesus showed up on the seashore after they had been fishing all night and had caught nothing.

After these things Jesus shewed Himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed He Himself.

There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of His disciples.

Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered Him, No.

And He said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

John 21:1-6

Although increase was all around their boat, the only way they could access it was by obeying Jesus' word. Once they did, a multitude of fish was drawn to the right side of the ship just waiting to be captured. They had so much fish that they couldn't pull them into the boat. They had to drag the net full of fish to the shore. This was probably the greatest fishing trip of their life. Jesus was waiting for them on the shore with hot, freshly fried fish and bread for His hungry disciples (v. 9-10). Yum!

Over lunch, Jesus reminded Peter about his calling when He asked, “. . . Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou Me more than these? He saith unto Him, Yea, Lord; Thou knowest that I love Thee. He saith unto him, Feed My lambs” (John 21:15).

Some commentaries suggest that Jesus asked Peter if he loved Him more than the other disciples. But I think that Jesus was referring to the fish. This was his old profession, and the biggest catch of his life was starring him in the face.

It's not recorded in the Bible, but I think that Peter must have remembered the first time that Jesus filled his net to overflowing with fish almost three years earlier. That was the day Jesus used Peter's boat to preach to the crowds of people that had gathered to hear His Words. (Anything that you do for God will always be rewarded.) That was also the day when Jesus called him to be a “fisher of men.”

Peter again had a choice to make. Jesus' questions to Peter that day helped him get back on track and resume his assignment to preach the Gospel and be a fisher of men.

My husband had a similar decision before leaving the rock business. Once Jesse was born again, he began to seek God's direction about his career. Jesse has often said, “God never told me to quit. He just asked me, ‘Do you love that more than you love Me?’”

That is really the issue. You will never be able to serve God halfway. Like the old Gospel song says, “If You're not Lord of everything, then You're not Lord at all.”

Jesse knew that he loved God more than anything. A few months later he was out of the music business, and two years later God supernaturally launched Jesse into evangelistic ministry. That was in 1976, and he has been used by God to reap a great increase of souls all over the world. Jesse was obedient to go to the places God told him to go and preach what God told him to preach, and millions have been saved, healed, and delivered. Glory to God!

God is serious about reaching the world with His Gospel and is searching for an increase of workers to help Him bring them into His kingdom. Matthew 9:36-38 says, “But when He saw the multitudes, He was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith He unto His disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth labourers into His harvest.”

I believe that God has called each of us to participate in the end-time harvest of souls before the return of the Lord Jesus. Proverbs 11:30 (AMPC) says, “The fruit of the [uncompromisingly] righteous is a tree of life, and he who is wise captures human lives [for God, as a fisher of men—he gathers and receives them for eternity].”

In the same way that God gathered the fish in the lake for His disciples, God will gather people to you that need capturing. Begin to expect explosive increase that God will gather to you at work, down the street, or down the hall at home. Reach out and capture a few lives for God. The harvest is still plentiful.

You Are Destined for Increase

I want you to expect an explosive increase in every area of your life. God wants you to increase in joy, wisdom, health, favor, and prosperity. Take the time to fuel your spirit with God’s Word concerning the things that you need and obey His instructions. Don’t be concerned about how things look in the natural. Realize that you have started something in the realm of the Spirit and you are destined for increase. Job 8:7 says, “Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.”

An increase of prosperity is God’s reward to those who obey His Word. Jesus’ hundredfold promise is actually an explosion of prosperity. “And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred” (Mark 4:8).

The principle does work. We have Jesus’ word on it. Seed that is sown in good ground will increase a hundredfold. In Mark chapter 10, Jesus let us know that this principle of divine hundredfold increase was not just spiritual but would reproduce anything that was sown, including houses and lands. “And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My sake, and the Gospel’s, but he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life” (Mark 10:29-30).

You don’t have to understand how it happens, just believe the promise and obey the directions. Peter didn’t know how God put the money in the mouth of a fish to pay their taxes—but he acted on Jesus’ word and dropped his line and the need was met. The widow woman that fed Elijah her last bite of food did not know how God multiplied her meal barrel and oil every day until the famine was over—but her obedience and faith in the word spoken to her ignited the explosive power of God. Everyone around her may have been starving, but she was able to feed her family with that sudden, great increase of corn meal and oil in her kitchen. Now that is glorious living!

Never think that your seed is too small or insignificant to God. Realize that God provides your seed and it has supernatural power to reproduce when sown in obedience and faith. Second Corinthians 9:10-11 says, “Now He that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.”

Realize that God provides your seed and it has supernatural power to reproduce when sown in obedience and faith.

God doesn’t have a problem with your increase. He is a “too much” God. He specializes in overflow and cup-running-over blessings. His covenant promise is for you to increase and multiply exceedingly. “And I will make My covenant between Me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly” (Genesis 17:2).

No matter what you need, you can expect the explosive power of God to gather it to you and bring sudden, great increase. Just as Jesus supernaturally gathered fish from the lake into the disciples’ nets, He can gather exactly what you need to live a glorious life. 🌐

The above article is an excerpt from Cathy’s book, You Are Designed for Glorious Living.

E-MEMBER TESTIMONY!

I am so thankful that I have the opportunity to watch Covenant Church online! I have an awesome worship experience in my living room with my grandchildren on Sunday mornings. I can't wait to come and visit in person!

“Congratulations, Jesse and Cathy! Fifty years of ministry—that is a miracle! I remember that over 40 years ago we met in Louisiana through a mutual friend...we were young then, and now I’m joining the “gray-haired party!” You know, even in our old age, I’m so thankful that you continued in ministry, because everywhere you go, you bring faith. You exhibit faith and joy. You have insights in the Word and an intimacy with God that blesses so many people. You’ve been a blessing to me, my wife, and my family for all these years and also to King’s Cathedral and Chapels. I remember the time you came to Maui for the first time. You even introduced me to Bob Rogers, and we have been friends ever since. Continue on! Hey, we’re still here—let’s do something great for God! Thanks for all the times you have encouraged and strengthened me. You’re such a giver. May you have many great years of ministry ahead.”

“Congratulations, Jesse and Cathy, on 50 years of amazing global ministry! God has brought you all so far. I mean, from driving around in your Toyota and doing everything you all did back then. And now, God has just continued to raise you, and raise you, and raise you! We are so thankful to call you friends. You both have ministered greatly to us. And we are laborers together, preaching this amazing Gospel of the Kingdom that shall never end. Hallelujah! Congratulations on 50 years!”
